

FLOOD AND LEAKS

Safety system against floods and water leaks in all types of facilities. The control panel controlled by a flow sensor if there is water leak in a pipe installation. It also has sensors to detect flooding water in rooms or rooms in the house.

In case to detect any leak or flood control electronic close safety valve preventing accidents and elevated water consumption.

Compatible with any of the existing installation, this system will help control and protect you from all incidents that may cause water leakage in the pipe any your home.!

